"BEREAVED, HELPING THE BEREAVED LEARN TO LIVE WITH GRIEF"

ISSUE #3 - SEPT 2025

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' CORNER

THANK-YOU

On behalf of BFO-Durham Region I extend sincere thanks to all those who answered our recent appeal letter. Your donations are so important for BFO-Durham Region to continue its support services. Sadly, each year, it seems those support services are even more needed. This Fall there are several support groups starting. Two bereaved mother's groups, a bereaved dad's group, two long term grief groups and a children's group. Also, several fundraising committees are hard at work organising our upcoming fundraising events. The office and group rooms will be well used for the next several months.

THANKS again to all who donated, which helps to make this support work possible

Gary Goswell (board chair)

BEFORE SETTING OUT TO COME TO A MEETING/GROUP.....

Whilst we're not into winter yet, may we suggest that our members get in the habit of checking our Facebook page and/or phone the office (before 3.45pm), to double-check that their event/meeting is actually taking place, especially once we have inclement weather as there can be cancellations due to weather or something else that might crop up. Thank you

A Note from your editor

Hi everyone,

I hope you all had a safe and pleasant summer (even with our intense heat wave).

You might notice a slight change in the newsletter on the “Our Children Remembered” pages...Starting with immediate effect, I will be incorporating a “Garden” theme, and eventually, I will have all the months uploaded onto our website with the heading of “Visit Our Garden of Remembrance” and you will be able to select your month of interest and see the flower that relates to that specific month, along with the listing of children we have in our garden for that specific month.

We have our ever popular “Oktoberfest Dance” happening in October (please see flyer for more info). Don't forget to contact the office to purchase your tickets.

Within this newsletter and on our website, you will find the order form/info for this year's Angels' Tree Ceremony.

To ensure the name of your Angel is listed in the Programme, your order and donation must be received at our office by the end of office hours on Wed. November 5th, 2025

We would love to include articles, photos, verses or news from our members in our newsletters, and you can submit them any time to the office or directly to myself glasscup_19@hotmail.com

I hope you all have a safe and happy fall, and that the Winter festivities may bring you a little joy and some fond memories.

((Hugs))

Adele

International Overdose Awareness Day fund-raising

Hi. My name is Kim Jenkins. I have been a member of BFO since 2021, when I lost my only child Sheena to an overdose.

My boss at Basketful Farms let me use a space at the fruit and vegetable stand to raise money for BFO on Sunday August the 31st. International Overdose Awareness day. My friend Michelle who lost her only child Ethan to an overdose in 2024 helped me.

We heard stories about families who have been through similar sorrows. Oshawa Mayor Dan Carter also stopped to talk to us after making his purchase.

We raised $472.

Family Support Nights

Bereaved Families of Ontario – Durham Region will again be hosting our Family Support Nights. All family members and friends are welcome to attend these two events.

On Monday November 3rd from 7-9 at the BFO-D office we will discuss Sibling Loss. There will be a panel of three siblings who will discuss their loss and there will be a time for discussion.

On Wednesday December 17th from 7-9 at the BFO-D office, the topic will be Getting Through the Holidays.

Light refreshments will be served.

MONKEY BUSINESS - ONGOING FUNDRAISER

Dear Friends of BFO-Durham - This is the Story behind the Monkey Business Workshop

This endeavor is in memory of my son, Shane Reymes, who sadly passed away in April of 2022 at the young age of 46.

My son Shane was given a sock monkey for his first birthday by his Aunt. That monkey went everywhere with him throughout his life. Here is a picture of Shane as a small boy with his Aunt and his brand-new monkey. As the years went by and after it being dragged around everywhere, it started to wear and fray so I had to re-cover it. With the assurance from me that his real monkey was underneath the new repair sock, he enjoyed years and years of continued friendship with his monkey. Even as an adult his monkey could always be found somewhere, such as on a dresser or shelf or sometimes even on his bed.

So, this past Christmas I decided that I would start making monkeys in memory and in honour of Shane's beautiful life with ALL monies raised going to charity in his name. The specific charity for this part of the project will go to BFO-Durham.

I found BFO-D after my son passed away and participated in the Mother's group. The people at BFO-D are such wonderful people and the cause is so needed at a time when the suffering of profound grief is so unbearable. This is a small way that I can give back to those who helped me so much in those early days and who continue to do so today.

I have made a collection of 52 monkey styles that are available for sale. Each one is "one of a kind" however if what you choose has already been purchased, I will re-make any one of them to resemble, as closely as possible, to your choice including the fabrics and accessories. Special requests are available within reason. You can request the PDF catalogue by emailing or calling me directly.

So, may I encourage you to think about participating in this project by buying one or more monkeys? They are recommended for age 4+ and that includes adults! These monkeys would be perfect to give as gifts or to sit on your bookshelf, in your office or in another special place.

Here is a little information about each monkey:

- the monkeys and outfits are hand made in Canada by me (Marlene, Shane's Mom) and made with much love.
- each monkey is approximately 18" – 22" in height depending on the design.
- each monkey has inserted into it, one rose quartz crystal to represent the monkey's heart. The rose quartz crystal is typically known as a healing crystal and is the stone of universal love. These rose quartz crystals come from a big collection of gemstones and crystals that belonged to Shane.
- to make ordering easier, each monkey has been named by immediate family and all have a special meaning to us. However, please feel free to re-name your monkey to whatever you would like once you receive it.
- all appendages are double, or triple sewn for secure attachment.
- the eyes are triple sewn and glued for secure attachment.
- each monkey is hand washable - lay flat to dry, as indicated on the sewn-on label.
- all proceeds from the sale of the monkeys will go to BFO-D. I am contributing the cost of all the material and my time to the cause.

Thank you for your generous support of this project. If you request a catalogue, please feel free to pass it on to anyone whom you think would like a very special monkey for a very special cause!

With many thanks,

Marlene St.John and all of Shane's family

“My Sister, Marie”

A children’s book on sibling loss

Jenn Carter, a volunteer and sibling loss facilitator at Bereaved Families of Ontario – Durham Region, has written a children’s book on the experience of losing a sibling. Jenn attended and greatly benefited from the sibling loss support group at BFO Durham when she was a preteen, after the loss of her older sister Julie.

This book touches on the lived experience of losing a sibling at a young age, and the emotions, events and feelings that come along with this difficult time as a family.

“My Sister, Marie” is available for pick-up at the BFO Durham office, for a minimum donation of $20 (can be paid by cash or via e-transfer to bfodurham@bellnet.ca).

In loving memory of Julie Marie Carter – the funniest, bravest person you could ever meet.
